1968

THE JUNIOR-SENIOR CLASSES
of

Petersburg High School

Presents . . .

THE 1968 WILDCAT

Pageland, South Carolina

FOREWORD

“Should auld acquaintance be forgot, Of dear dear old Petersburg High?”

We, the seniors of 1968, think not. It is the purpose of the 1968 Wildcat to present memories—memories of a wonderful year at our Alma Mater. Here we have been helped to grow, develop, and prepare for the future. The respect and esteem that we have for our faculty and fellow students develop our concern for our neighbors around the world.

Cherished thoughts are many as we recall our rewards for work well done, our enthusiasm for extra curricular activities and our goal for graduation.

Now that we are about to go into the world to proclaim the praise of our Alma Mater, in the future when we look at this book it will recall moments, memories and faces, thus serving as a link to the past. To those of you who remain with our Alma Mater dear, may the 1968 Wildcat inspire you to forever hold her standards high and bring her even greater honor.

We present the 1968 Wildcat—for auld lang syne.

DEDICATION

Understanding, patience, wisdom, discipline—four words that can best describe our teachers to whom we so fondly dedicate the 1968 Wildcat.

Not only have they endeavored to teach the academics, a task in itself, but they have done much to instill in us those qualities which will best suit us for our roles as mature useful adults.

Thank you for time service self

ADMINISTRATION

I would like to congratulate the juniors and seniors of 1968 for this noble gesture of publishing this year book. I am sure in years hence it will serve as a reminder of your part played in education at Petersburg High School.

This is truly a challenging age. It is an age where people are constantly confronted with many decisions. It takes a person with a broad purpose in life, who knows where he is going, and is constantly striving toward that goal of success.

Theodore P. Farris states "some people even now live in a world which is continually on the verge of rebirth; its dangers and struggles are the birth pangs of a new era." Truly, we are entering into a new era, but I am sure you will be successful in all of your endeavors. Much success to each of you.

Mr. A.W. Arnold
Principal

Principal Arnold confers with his secretary, Mrs. Margie M. Ingram, as Miss Phyllis Niller, high school aide, pauses to greet a visitor.

YEARBOOK COMMITTEE

The yearbook staff and faculty advisors share a smile as they proofread the final pages of the great '68 Wildcat.

EDITOR SPEAKS

Upon being chosen editor of this edition of the Wildcat, I must say that I was very elated to serve my class in this manner. To me, this thrilling experience was indeed a great pleasure.

The solicitude, time, and consideration devoted to this edition symbolize our love for Petersburg High. To commemorate our days spent here we have this edition to look back on as we go through our many walks of life. In the forthcoming years as we leaf through its pages, may it inspire us to strive for the better things of life.

Classmates, as we part from this place so dear to us, let us carry the lighted torches of knowledge. Forever let this special light shine in you. Let it shine so that everyone will know we will not only be the men and women of tomorrow, but the doctors, lawyers, teachers and other VIP's in our rapidly changing society.

To the members of the staff, advisors, and others who have made contributions and put forth an effort to make this 1968 edition of the "Wildcat" the best yet, I would like to express my appreciation. To you, I extend a hearty thanks. May God bless you and keep you in his tender loving care.
